Swans return to winning ways

The first thirty minutes of the game were very uneventful, William Tucker from the visitors had a couple of shots wide and Toumani Sidibe effort also fell wide.

The game changed on 31 minutes, Sidibe always a threat down the right wing fired in a dangerous cross towards the near post where Craig Allen attempted clearance found the back of his own net to give the Swans the lead.

On the stroke of half time, Ben McLean and Edji Mbunga linked up resulting in a shot from McLean striking the right hand post with Sidibe in the right place to follow up the rebound rifling the ball into the net.

The home side dominated the second half, Sidibe firing inches wide and a minute later visiting keeper Jack Arthur tipped Jamie Martins header over the bar after being put through by Mbunga.

Barnstaple's best chance of the game saw the Swans clear the ball off the line from a corner on the hour mark.

The game was settled on 76 minutes, Mike Ford heading in from a Marley Thomas taken free kick from the left. A final chance for the Swans came two minutes from time, Liam Harpers cross finding Mbunga whose shot was deflected over the bar.
